

BONNEVILLE
INTERNATIONAL

Board of Directors

Kem C. Gardner

Kem C. Gardner was the Co-founder and President of The Boyer Company L.C., a commercial real estate development company. Over the past 30 years, The Boyer Company has developed more than 20 million square feet of real estate projects in the intermountain west and other areas of the U.S. The company has more than 14 million square feet of such properties under management. In 2004, Mr. Gardner placed his assets in Gardner Properties L.C., where he serves as Chairman and continues business pursuits with his family and The Boyer Company.

He also is a member of the Intermountain Health Care Board of Trustees, where he chairs the Finance Committee. He is a member of Intermountain Health Care Insurance, Inc., Board of Directors and chairs the campaign for the new Intermountain Medical Center.

Mr. Gardner has served as Chair of The Salt Lake Chamber and currently chairs the Capitol Advisory Committee, responsible for developing a 25-year master plan for Salt Lake City. He also has been active in education, serving as Chair of the Utah State Board of Regents and on the National Advisory Committees of Weber State University and Southern Utah University.

Mr. Gardner has served on the Executive Committee of the United Way of Salt Lake since 1998, including two terms as Chair. During the highly successful 2002 Olympic Winter Games, he served as Chairman of the 2002 Olympic Ambassadors and Chairman of the Salt Lake Board for Olympic Aid.

He received his Bachelor of Arts (1967) and Juris Doctorate (1970) Degrees from the University of Utah. He and his wife Carolyn are the parents of six children, and they have 10 grandchildren.